Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

Our purpose is to provide civilian support to Wing in its role to deliver a range of activities across the geographical area of west Scotland on behalf of the 26 member squadrons. Est Scotland Wing is a uniformed youth organisation which coordinates and delivers a wide range of training experiences for young people with an interest in aviation, or the RAF and its history. West Scotland Wing adopts the RAF Air Cadets Aims as part of its constitution, actively seeking to develop skills and qualities in young people which will be useful in the future.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The Wing serves to build upon the experience the Cadets receive at squadron level. A wholly volunteer driven organisation, the Wing seeks to create opportunities for Staff and Cadets to come together for training and the wider range of activities offered, which represents the values and mission of the RAF Air Cadets.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

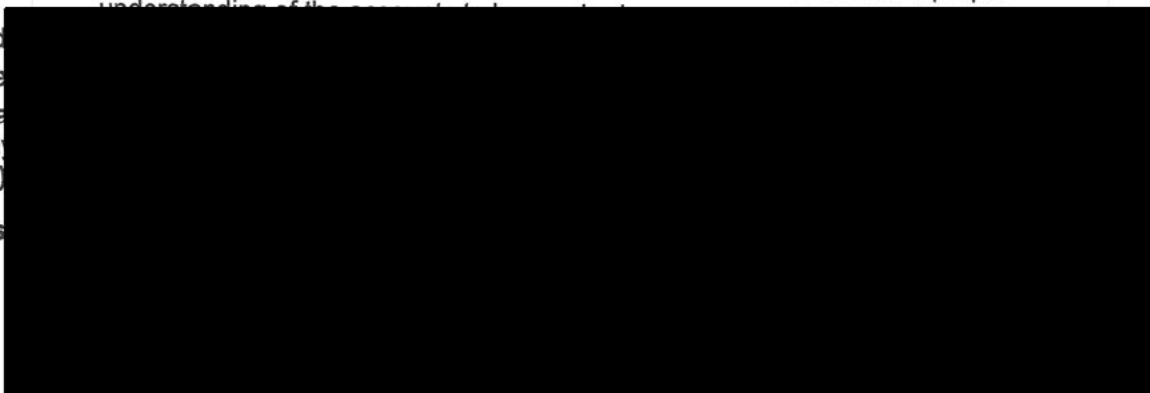

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention [other than that disclosed on the attached page*]

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
 - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be obtained
