Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

What the charity does: At the Scottish Seabird Centre we will do all that we can to ensure that we inspire people to explore and care for Scotland's coastal and marine environment and to provide them with the scientific evidence, information and knowledge to make informed choices about the activities that affect the marine environment. Our people (staff and volunteers) are crucial to our success. We will take an inclusive approach, use our tourism asset flexibly, and develop our education, marine outreach and digital resources to ensure that everyone has an opportunity to have the best experience of Scotland's marine environment.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The object for which the trust is established is to advance the education of the public concerning the ecology of the natural environment including in particular without limiting the generality of the foregoing, birds, including sea and other birds, whether migratory or otherwise, fish and other marine animal and plant life, and flora, fauna, insect and other wildlife in general. to promote the conservation and protection of the same. and to study and communicate information relating to all or any of the above to the general public and to interested bodies, organisations and institutions.
