Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

What the charity does: • We manage projects to conserve historic buildings at risk, ensuring that they have a renewed practical purpose, long term caring owners and a viable future. • In our engagement and education programme, we share and foster best conservation practices and skills, as well as helping communities to appreciate their local heritage. • We have a small portfolio of historic properties, which we actively maintain as workspaces and holiday lets.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The object for which the Trust is established is to promote and encourage, either on its own or in conjunction with others, the maintenance and improvement of the amenity of the geographical area of Central Fife, and the protection and preservation of its landscape and architectural and historical heritage, by any means, and, in particular, by the acquisition of such lands and buildings of historical, architectural or constructional interest as the Board for the time being of the Trust may select for the purpose of restoration and sale or lease subject to such legal valid restrictions as will ensure the future preservation of such lands and buildings.

Geography

- Main operating location: Fife
