Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations','It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of health','the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended','the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: To befriend and support the residents and staff of the Mackintosh Centre, to provide small home comforts and facilitate some activities eg. crafts. We achieve this by holding fund raising events and by donations.

Beneficiaries: 'Older People'

Objectives: The aim of the Group is to promote the welfare of older people in a way which could be said, either now or later, to be legally charitable. The Group does. this by : Bringing together individuals and representatives of statutory and voluntary organisations. Making representations on behalf of older people and their carers. Making information available to, for and on behalf of older people and their carers. Encouraging training for those working with older people and their carers. Promoting and running appropriate services and activities. Helping (by voluntary and financial means), promoting or providing anything which will improve the quality and standard of any such services. Creating encouraging and maintaining public interest by providing a link between any such services and the community which they service.
