Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education'

What the charity does: Argyll College UHI provides high quality innovative education opportunities, acts as an economic driver to enhance the skills and development of the local economy and develop a reputation for excellence which will encourage students to study in the communities we serve. The charity provides a range of further and higher education to as many of the communities in the area as possible. It does this by having a network of centres, some small, some large, in all the main centres of population. The main annual objectives of the charity are to meet the educational delivery targets set by SFC. to maintain quality standards as agreed internally and as assessed by external bodies. and to do all of this within the financial resources made available to the charity. There is generally a target to make a return on annual income for the purposes of re-investing to improve the ability of the charity to meet its key charitable objectives.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The advancement of education, including the provision of training and guidance, for the public benefit in Argyll & Bute.
