Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

What the charity does: We are a community garden run by volunteers. We aim to provide a therapeutic experience for volunteers of all abilities to help to maintain the garden and learn about gardening and the environment. To provide a peaceful place for local people to visit and to educate children and others about plants and growing. We are organic, and work to support biodiversity. We have weekly volunteer sessions during the summer and have volunteers with a learning disability and mental health issues. We have had educational visits from the local school, and other youth groups eg Brownies and Guides, and Beavers.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: 2. OBJECTIVES The aim of the Association is to provide and maintain a community garden for all to visit or take part in horticultural activities. This can involve educational activities about growing vegetables and other plants, in ways to support biodiversity, and promote healthy eating and the benefits of working outdoors. This may include liaison with local schools and other youth organisations, and the provision of short gardening courses for anyone in the community. To provide a supportive environment for anyone, regardless of ability, to take part in gardening as a volunteer, as a therapeutic and social activity.
