Structure Governance and Management

Constitution

SCIO (Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation)

Appointment of Trustees

The Constitution states the Board may at any time appoint any person to be a charity trustee – by way of a resolution passed by majority vote at a board meeting.

Management

The structure of the organisation consists of the trustees – who hold regular meetings, and generally control the activities of the organisation and day-to-day running.

Objectives and Activities

Our role includes acting as an advisory and support network for out-of-school care providers, offering guidance and practical assistance to help groups overcome challenges, resolve issues, and maintain good practice standards. We aim to encourage continuous improvement, good governance, and effective management across all member organisations.

In order to achieve these objectives, the charity is committed to keeping members informed of changes in government policy, local authority requirements, and relevant legislation affecting childcare and community services. We provide access to information, training opportunities, workshops, and professional development to ensure members remain compliant with current standards and best practice guidance.

The charity also seeks to encourage partnership working, the sharing of knowledge and resources, and the promotion of equality, diversity, and inclusion within all out-of-school care settings. Through these activities, we aim to strengthen community-based childcare provision and contribute positively to the wellbeing and development of children and families.

Charitable purposes

During the year, the organisation continued to work towards its charitable purposes by supporting community-based out-of-school care services and encouraging participation within the local community.

The organisation advanced community development through ongoing engagement with member groups, providing advice, support meetings, and opportunities for collaboration. Although activity levels were reduced during the year due to illness within the Board, the organisation continued to maintain links with services and provide assistance where required.

In support of the advancement of education and skills development, the organisation accessed a number of training opportunities during the year. These opportunities helped members and representatives remain informed about changes in legislation, good practice, and developments within the childcare and community sector. The organisation also continued to encourage participation, volunteering, and involvement from members in order to strengthen community-led services and improve opportunities for future development.

The organisation further promoted its charitable purposes by continuing to explore future funding opportunities and considering ways to expand membership and participation during the coming year. These activities aim to support the long-term sustainability and development of community services and encourage greater involvement within the sector.

Chairman's Report

I am pleased to present this report on behalf of the charity and to reflect on the work carried out during the year in supporting out-of-school care groups within our community.

The charity's principal objective continues to be the provision of support, guidance, and development opportunities for out-of-school care providers. We aim to assist groups in achieving and maintaining high standards of care, while also acting as an advisory body to help address any issues or challenges that may arise.

Unfortunately, this was a particularly quiet year for the organisation. Ongoing illness within the Board significantly impacted the level of activity and limited the amount of development work, meetings, and wider engagement that could be undertaken throughout the year.

Despite these challenges, the charity continued to operate and remained available to provide support and advice to member groups where required. We maintained contact with members where possible and continued to offer guidance on issues affecting out-of-school care providers.

The Board would like to thank everyone who has continued to support the charity throughout the year, including members, volunteers, and partner organisations. Your patience, understanding, and ongoing commitment have been greatly appreciated during what has been a difficult and challenging period for the organisation.

Plans for the year ahead

Looking ahead, the charity will continue to focus on building membership and encouraging greater participation from out-of-school care groups within the community. We hope to strengthen engagement, provide increased opportunities for support and collaboration, and continue promoting high standards within the sector.

The Board is also currently considering future funding options to help support and sustain the charity's activities and development in the coming year.

Charity Registration

The charity was registered on 9th March 2013.

Independent Examiner's Report
For the Year Ended 31 March 2026

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Ferguslie Community Development Trust, SC050697

I report on the financial statements of the charity for the year ended 31 March, which are set out on pages 6 & 7

Respective responsibilities of Trustees and Examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiner's Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Independent Examiner's Statement

In connection with my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that, in any material respect, the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Regulations have not been met, or

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
