Structure, Governance and Management

Constitution

The Charity was registered in its current legal form on 19th May, 1998. It has a two tier structure comprising of Members and Charity Trustees.

Appointment of trustees

The number of Charity Trustees shall be not less than 3. Trustees are voted in by the Members at each Annual General Meeting (AGM).

Objectives and Activities

The objects of the Charity shall to be advance the education of people with visual impairments and their carers in Lochaber and to provide facilities, in the interest of social welfare, for recreation and other leisure-time occupation so that the conditions of life of the aforementioned people with visual impairments and their carers may be improved and they can increase their independence.

Charitable purposes

Provide social welfare and other recreational interests for those who are visually impaired throughout Lochaber.

Activities

We hold regular meetings and outings for lunch and afternoon tea and a get together each January for a post Xmas celebration when possible.

Achievements and Performance

We did manage to organise an outings in July which was very much enjoyed by all who attended.

Financial review

Total income for the year was £160. Expenditure for same period was £205. Reserves at year end were £634 of unrestricted funds.

Reserves Policy

There is no requirement in the Constitution to hold any reserves however the trustees recognise that it is advisable to retain three months worth of normal running costs in order to meet commitments and to cover any unexpected expenditure.

Plans for future period

We are looking forward to planning and organising more events and outings.

We are always looking to increase our Membership so will actively promote the group where possible.

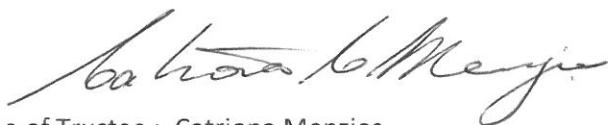

Exemptions from Disclosure

There are no exemptions from disclosure.

Independent examiner's report to the charity on the unaudited accounts of Lochaber Friendship Group For The Visually Impaired.

I report on the accounts of the Charity for the year ended 31st March 2026 which are set out on pages 5 to 6.

Respective responsibilities of trustee and independent examiner

The charity's Trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- * to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- * to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
