Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

Scouting (The Scouts) in the UK is organised through The Scout Association. Our purpose is to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society.

The Scout Association's method of meeting the purpose of Scouting is through a balanced program.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The program is everything we do as Scouts – it includes the activity badges, challenge badges and awards. This program is planned by the section leadership teams in partnership with young people and provides a framework for the progression of informal learning, events and activities that covers everything that young people take part in from the ages of 4 to 25. The program is flexible and has room to adapt and accommodate the needs of the individuals in the section.

The balanced program for all sections is based around three main themes: outdoor and adventure, world, and skills. In each section a range of badges and awards support all aspects of Scouting, including the main themes: leadership, teamwork, and personal development and through six tailored programme zones: community, global, beliefs and attitudes, outdoor and adventure, creative expression and fit for life. The programme is delivered in a balanced way that incorporates elements from each theme, to offer young people the most interesting and diverse experience.

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

I hope this message finds you well. I'm pleased to share with you a summary of our year at the RN Sea Scouts and cubs, highlighting the various activities and accomplishments we've enjoyed together.

This year has been quite busy for the Cubs and Sea Scouts, with a variety of meetings and events that engaged our young members and fostered their development. Throughout the year, the group participated in numerous land and water activities. Notably, several sessions were dedicated to both land-based activities and crafts.

Our Cub section has also had a great year, running multiple activities both on and off the water, and having lots of fun. This provided opportunities for the younger section to learn essential skills while enjoying time together. The cub section engaged in important skill development activities, such as fire safety first aid local knowledge road safety water activity badge work

Among the highlights for the Sea Scouts were our water activities, which included a series of fun and educational sessions. The first night on water was a memorable experience for the scouts, offering the opportunity to enhance their confidence and skills, fire safety, and food hygiene. Events like the Halloween activities and the night hike added an element of excitement, while joint evenings like Up Helly Aa facilitated engagement with other groups.

The past year also saw multiple significant events. Our participation in Remembrance Day, along with the Patrol Leader Development Residential, fostered leadership skills among the scouts. Pool sessions were regularly scheduled, providing a controlled environment for learning water safety and kayaking techniques. A notable experience was our visit to the Dalcross coastguard station, which provided valuable insights into water safety and emergency response. The Santa's Elves activities involved scouts assisting in the local rotary club, demonstrating their spirit of service. The recent Inverness Monopoly Run event was particularly exciting, encouraging teamwork and strategic thinking among the scouts. The Bothy camp and the Orkney trip were additional highlights of adventurous learning experiences, enriching the scouts' understanding of teamwork and outdoor skills.

This year, we were particularly proud to see [REDACTED] receive the Silver Acorn Award, recognising his exceptional contributions to scouting and the impact he has made on the lives of our young members. His dedication and commitment have truly been inspiring.

Throughout the year, we are thankful for all leaders, both old and new, whose dedication and support have greatly enriched our group. They have contributed their time and skills to ensure that our scouts have meaningful experiences.

As we reflect on this productive year, it's a good opportunity to express our gratitude to the children for their enthusiasm and participation, making each session and event enjoyable. Likewise, we extend our thanks to the parents who have continually supported our efforts and to the many volunteers behind the scenes who keep everything running smoothly.

Looking ahead, we remain hopeful for another engaging year of scouting, encouraging all families to stay involved. Your continued support makes all the difference in nurturing the skills and confidence of our young scouts.

Financial review

Brief statement of the charity's policy on reserves

The Trustees believe that around three months of annual expenditure is an appropriate level of reserves in order to cover timing differences between receipts and payments and to allow for any unexpected items of expenditure on the Scout Building. (£2600 is set aside for this purpose.)

The reserve account is also used as a savings account as it is the only account that pays interest.

The reserve at the end of the financial year 2024_2025 stood at £17,698.44.

Details of any deficit

None.

Donated facilities and services (if any)

The Scout Hall and surrounding grounds belong to Scottish Canals for which we pay no rent or leasing fee.
