Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: We want to preserve the social and industrial heritage of Paisley's Thread Mills for the education and enjoyment of all by displaying information, materials and equipment relative to the mills. The Museum is manned by a team of volunteers and is open each Wednesday and Saturday from 1200 to 1600 hours from early February to early December each year. We welcome visitors from both home and abroad. Group visits to the Museum can be arranged by contacting our E-Mail address. When requested we organise visits to other organisations to provide a talk about the history of the thread industry.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To advance the education of the public about the Paisley Thread Mill it's history and development, it's links with Paisley and beyond and the inhabitants and beyond.
