Reference and administrative details of the charity, its trustees and advisers

The names of the trustees, the offices held by them and the dates they held office are detailed on page 1 of these financial statements, "Legal and administrative information".

Structure, governance and management -

The charity is an unincorporated association. It is governed by a constitution.

Admission to membership of the church is open to anyone who satisfies the trustees that they agree with the aims and objectives of Plains Evangelical Church as laid out in its constitution. All members are expected to attend regularly and contribute systematically, as the Lord has prospered them, to support His cause. Additionally, members are obliged to become involved in some of the Christian work in connection with the church.

Trustees are appointed in accordance with the constitution.

Objectives and activities

Its principal objectives and activities of the Charity are:

The advancement of religion this is expressed through the seven key objectives:

1. To glorify God through the preaching of His word
2. To glorify God through making Christ known in every household in the village and seeing people come to faith in Him.
3. To glorify God through identifying the needs in our community and seeking to meet those needs.
4. To glorify God through promoting spiritual growth and discipleship in all our lives.
5. To glorify God through loving, caring and supporting each other and those in the community.
6. To glorify God through identifying and enabling individual gifting and equipping His people to serve Him in the world.
7. To glorify God through being a welcoming, open and accessible church.

Achievements

Through our weekly Kid's Club, Bookbug, Toddler Group, Men's Breakfast, Ladies Nights, The Drop-in and other ventures, we have served the community over the past year and hope to continue in the coming year.

Reserves policy

It is the policy of the charity to maintain unrestricted funds at a level which, in the opinion of the trustees, provides sufficient funds to cover management and administration and support costs which arise from time to time.

Trustees' responsibilities

Laws applicable to charities in Scotland requires the trustees to prepare financial statements for each financial year which give a true and fair view of the charity's financial activities during the year and of its financial position at the end of the year. In preparing financial statements, giving a true and fair view, the trustees are required to:

- select suitable accounting policies and then apply them consistently.
- make judgements and estimates that are reasonable and prudent.
- state whether applicable accounting standards have been followed, subject to any material departures disclosed and explained in the financial statements.
- prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.

The trustees are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which disclose with reasonable accuracy at any time the financial position of the Trust and which enable them to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the charity and hence for taking reasonable steps for the prevention and detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the trustees and signed on their behalf by:

Margaret McCracken (Secretary)

Independent Examiners Report

Scottish Charities Number - SC029054

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006.

The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) - (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

- 1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
 - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations; and
 - to prepare the financial statements on the going concern basis unless it is inappropriate to presume that the charity will continue in operation.
- 2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
