Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: The Friends of the French Institute were formed twenty five years ago to support the deep ties between Scotland and France. The Society believes in finding ways to draw our two countries together. The Friends promote the language and cultural links between the Scots and the French, and help ensure that young people in particular benefit from the opportunities of a rich tradition of education, literature and arts, shared between both nations.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To advance the education of the public in Scotland about all aspects of French culture by fostering in the general public in Scotland a knowledge, understanding and experience of all aspects of French culture and by encouraging Franco/Scottish Co-operation in cultural activities.

Geography
