Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

What the charity does: Our aim is to manage the woods for the benefit of the local community – in particular education, training, recreation, and the sustainable production of forest products. That includes providing a year round programme of events aimed at promoting a woodland culture, making the woods available as a free venue for other organisations to run events associated with music, arts, woodland skills, wildlife studies and other cultural studies, and also providing completely open access for members of the local community.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To manage Wooplaw Woods, Lauder and (any land adjacent which is either purchased or leased by the company or which is offered to it under a management agreement) in a way which is sustainable and which enhances biodiversity, for the benefit of the local community
