Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Epilepsy Connections exists to serve and benefit people with epilepsy and their families, carers and friends, and other people involved in their lives. We want everyone affected by epilepsy to have the support, resilience, and respect they need to live life to the full. We walk alongside people affected by epilepsy, providing vital support and encouragement so that they can live well and have their voices heard. Epilepsy Connections' purpose is to support people with epilepsy to access the care they need and to help create the circumstances in which they can flourish. We are committed to: Offering accessible, safe and welcoming spaces in which we listen to and value people affected by Supporting people affected by epilepsy to recognise and realise their full potential and actively involving people affected by epilepsy in the development of our work.

Beneficiaries: 'People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: The Company's objects are: (1) To promote the health and welfare of people with epilepsy in Scotland in any manner which is now or may at any time in the future, be deemed by the law to be charitable (2) The advancement of education and, in particular, to increase public knowledge and awareness of epilepsy and associated issues through the provision of education and advice
