Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: The charity aims to build the best beginnings for children. To do this the charity provides perinatal services to support attuned relations between the parent/carer and the infant. The charity offers early learning and childcare through 6 family learning centres and provides a range of family learning and family support services. In addition the charity provides therapeutic services to adults and children.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: (1) To advance the education of pre-school children, and with particular reference to the promotion of personal growth and development among children of three years or under. (2) To relieve the needs of children suffering from mental and/or physical disability, illness or impairment. (3) To provide advisory, counselling and other support services to the families of young children in order to help such children to develop their physical, mental and spiritual capacity so that they may grow to full maturity as individuals and as members of society.
