Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The Purpose of Scouting

Scouting exists to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society.

The Values of Scouting

As Scouts we are guided by these values:

Integrity - We act with integrity; we are honest, trustworthy and loyal.

Respect - We have self-respect and respect for others.

Care - We support others and take care of the world in which we live.

Belief - We explore our faiths, beliefs and attitudes.

Co-operation - We make a positive difference; we co-operate with others and make friends.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The Scout Method

Scouting takes place when young people, in partnership with adults, work together based on the values of Scouting and:

- enjoy what they are doing and have fun
- take part in activities indoors and outdoors
- learn by doing
- share in spiritual reflection
- take responsibility and make choices
- undertake new and challenging activities
- make and live by their Promise.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

1. Beavers Report – Heather informed us she had 13 beavers and during the year their activities included a chippy walk, Chinese new year and thanks to a donation of £400 from Thrifty One they had a very successful event at Meggernie. They have a waiting list of 8.
2. Cub Report – Kathleen said the group has 28 members. They have been working on various badges and had a pack holiday to Craggan which was enjoyed by all. She thanked the leaders for all their help throughout the year.
3. Scout Report – Ron said the troop had 20 members and during the year they had camps at Templars Park, Dalguise and Fordell Firs as well as a weekend camp at the community field. Working on their model makers badge was a highlight of the year. Ron thanked Paul Appleton for all his help and hard work during the year.
4. Explorer Report – Norman said numbers have dropped down to 12-14. During the year they attended a district camp at Dunning, group camp at Alyth community field and summer camp at Lochgoilhead. On the DofE front they ran a gold expedition from Inverness to Invershiel and a silver expedition practice followed by a silver
