Objectives and activities

The aim of the Scout association is to promote the development of young people in achieving their full physical, intellectual and social potentials, as individuals, as responsible members of the local, national and international communities. The method of achieving the aim of the association is by providing an enjoyable and attractive scheme of progressive training based on the Scout Promise and Law and guided by adult leadership.

Structure, governance and management

Constitution

The charity is an unincorporated association. It is constituted in terms of the Scout Association which is a charitable body incorporated by Royal Charter.

Management

The affairs of the Scout Group are managed by the Group Executive Committee whose members are elected at the Annual General Meeting of the Group Council. The 183rd Glasgow Scout Group comprises of a Scout troop, two Cub packs and two Beaver colonies. The trustees meet regularly to manage the charity and to receive reports from individual section leaders.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

The trustees are appointed in terms of the Constitution and are recruited based on their skills and knowledge of sporting and youth activities

Achievements and performance

The Scout Group continues to grow from strength to strength. We continue to provide an exciting, fun filled, action packed Scouting Programme for around 130 young people.

Financial review

Land occupied and Assets

The Scout group owns the Scout Hall and the surrounding land as identified by the title deeds.

Details of any surplus

This financial year the group had a surplus of £9528. A significant proportion of this surplus was due to the group being left a legacy of £6000 for which we are very grateful. This surplus will be utilised for the ongoing upkeep and maintenance of the hall, grounds and investment in equipment eg camping gear and Scouting activities.

Statement on the charities' policy on reserves

The Scout Group does not currently have a reserves policy in place. All finances are available for the furtherment of activities of the Scouting movement

Future plans

We will continue to provide opportunities for our young people to develop and grow. Camping, development activities, participation in sport and fundraising activities continue to be at the centre of next year's activities.

Unqualified report for a non-company charity preparing receipts and payments accounts

Independent examiner's report to the trustees of 183rd Glasgow Scout Council

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 August 2024 which are set out on pages .... to ....

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended). The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the 2006 Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention:

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
   - to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations
   - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
