What the charity does: Newton Community Education Association is the charity committee established to help manage the running of the local community centre in Newton, West Lothian. Owned by West Lothian Council, the community centre serves the community of Newton and the surrounding areas of Abercorn, Society and Topley Wells. The community centre has a vibrant weekly programme of events, providing community groups with a place to meet, and it's a popular venue for both regular commercial lets and single use hires. The charity committee meets monthly, helps manage the financial management of the centre in partnership with the Council and puts on activities and events throughout the year.
