Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

What the charity does: We work with the public to locate and record heritage sites affected by climate change and coastal erosion in Scotland. We organise educational projects, talks, and activities for the public. We inform the public and others about the effects of climate change on heritage sites. We have developed and continue to maintain an app and website that allows the public to record new discoveries and update information on known sites, including submitting photographs and updating locations. This information is used to manage heritage sites across Scotland.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To advance education regarding the history, archaeology and past environments of the coastal zone of Scotland.

Geography

- Main operating location: Fife
- Geographical spread: Operations cover all or most of Scotland
