Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education'

What the charity does: We offer opportunities for girls to meet each week, learn about other cultures, religions as well as learning about themselves and their abilities and rights. We promote inclusion, and teach future skills, including social skills and more practical ones. We also offer fun experiences that the girls enjoy together and occasionally offer experiences away from their families sometimes for the first time, such as sleepovers. We help the girls learn to express themselves. Mostly we are to help the girls become well rounded individuals with various skills, and to encourage them to be good and active citizens.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: Advancement of education
