Structure, Governance and Management

The Church of Scotland is Trinitarian in doctrine, reformed in tradition and Presbyterian in polity. It exists to glorify God and to work for the advancement of Christ's Kingdom throughout the world. As a national Church, it acknowledges a distinctive call and duty to bring the ordinances of religion to the people in every parish of Scotland through a territorial ministry. It co-operates with other Churches in various ecumenical bodies in Scotland and beyond.

Governing Document

The church is administered in accordance with the terms of the Deed of Constitution (Unitary Form).

Recruitment and Appointment of Trustees

Members of the Kirk Session are the charity trustees. The Kirk Session members are the elders of the church and are chosen from those members of the church who are considered to have the appropriate gifts and skills. The minister, who is a member of the Kirk Session, is elected by the congregation and inducted by Presbytery. The Kirk Session ensures that elders who have elected not to continue as active elders resign and take no part in Kirk Session decisions. All trustees are now required to attend training in safeguarding and during the year face to face training was attended by all the trustees except for eleven who at the end of the year had still to complete the course laid down by the Church of Scotland.

Organisational Structure

The Congregation provides spiritual growth and service to the parish and local community. There are groups within the Congregation which are responsible for maintaining current achievements and standards and for setting new goals and aspirations. These groups provide the structure by which the Congregation functions and reviews their achievements and future plans in their reports to the Kirk Session.

The Kirk Session meets up to six times in a year to administer the business of the church. Other meetings are called by the moderator when necessary. Certain responsibilities are delegated as appropriate to Committees (Groups) whose conveners are elders or members of the congregation. The remit of each Group has been agreed by the Kirk Session. The following are the main Groups that have been set up: Finance and Stewardship, Pastoral Care, Property, Worship & Children's Ministry, Ways and Means, Admin and Publicity. The Group members are a mixture of elders and church members. Some of the Groups have not met regularly since lockdown and their business has been dealt with at Kirk Session level.

How We Worship

We continue to hold only one joint service of worship on a Sunday at 10.30am using either of the Benarty or Lochgelly churches on an alternate basis. This was felt to be a positive way forward bringing Benarty and Lochgelly closer together. Separate services were held on Remembrance Sunday. Once a month the service takes the form of a "café church" to reach out to some of those who want an alternative to the more traditional form of service. Worship in two local care homes for the elderly is also conducted regularly by the minister on the second and fourth Fridays of each month with all members encouraged to attend. Since 2023 the Minister has organised a Mens' Breakfast Club which meets monthly and gives an opportunity for conversation, reflection and prayer over a breakfast.

It was agreed in 2023 that monthly worship should take place on a rota basis in each of the four buildings within our cluster as defined in Fife Presbytery's Mission Plan i.e. Benarty, Lochgelly, Auchterderran and Kinglassie. Joint worship continues on the third Sunday of each month. The wider cluster has also given an opportunity to take part in fundraising activities and special events. In December 2024 the whole cluster met for a well- attended Nativity service at Lochgelly Centre. A cluster prayer meeting continues to be held every three to four weeks.

The Worship Group meet regularly to plan the monthly café church services which are accompanied by the Praise Band. There is an opportunity to introduce new hymns and songs in this setting. Two members of the Worship Group who have completed the Weaving Worship course lead worship when the Minister or Deacon is unavailable.

The Hungarian Worship Group introduced in 2021 continues to make regular use of the church and halls for worship and prayer meetings. At the end of May a Spring Weekend Retreat was held in Paisley. In the lead up to the New Year a group of young Hungarian ministers visited Scotland, and they spent three days in Lochgelly. They held an Agape dinner on Hogmanay attended by church volunteers in appreciation for their commitment and efforts. The Indian Orthodox Church in Edinburgh requested use of the sanctuary in Lochgelly for services for their local members in the run up to Christmas. This was approved by the Kirk Session

Objectives and Activities

The Kirk Session is responsible for further groups in addition to those already mentioned. These are: the Newsletter Production Team, the Newsletter Delivery Team, Website and Facebook Maintenance, Messy Church, the Fellowship/Bible Study Group, the Shoe Box Appeal Group, the Welfare Group, the Craft Group, the 'Drop In', the Men's Bowling Club, the Women's Bowling Club, the Sunday Teas Group, the Hospitality Team, the Church Readers Group as well as a Funeral Team. The Kirk Session complies with the advice of Fife Presbytery in relation to Data Protection requirements.

Social events are organised by the Ways and Means Group. During the year various fundraising events were held including: a Yard Sale; Autumn and Christmas Fayres; a Musical Afternoon Tea; Harvest Home; Soup lunches; and a Beetle Drive. Lochgelly Brass Band performed their usual Christmas concert in the Lochgelly church and also played outdoors for Carols at the Crib on 18 December.

The church provides a valued service to the local community. Towards the end of 2022 it was decided to provide a Warm Spaces location in the Lochgelly building under the scheme promoted by Fife Council. This has proved to be very popular and has continued in 2024 as the 'Drop-In' on Thursday morning from September onwards. The success of the venture is entirely due to willing church members volunteering to turn out each week and continuing financial assistance from the Council to help with costs allowing donations to go to the church. The Lochgelly church halls are used regularly by bowling clubs and several community organisations including the Probus Club. Local musical groups also use the halls for rehearsals. In Benarty, the Toddlers Group used the building in the early months of the year and a support group, Tartan Talkers, was hosted

Achievements and Performance.

During the year the Deacon continued the traditional activities of visiting people in care homes, at home and telephoning members. Lent Study ran for five weeks and was well attended with approximately 18 people each week attending. Advent Study and Bubblegum & Fluff were also well attended. A Bible Study Fellowship met almost every Tuesday evening during the year following the Lyle Bible Study by the Bible Society.

The Outreach Worker as expected retired in June 2024 with a considerable impact on activities and it was appreciated that there would be challenges in maintaining the role of the church within schools and the wider community. Messy Church continued in the first months of the year. Volunteers were sought to develop the idea of a cross-cluster family event but there was insufficient support. Messy Church was wound up in a positive way leaving the way open for something new to develop. The Toddlers' Group was discontinued in April and equipment and resources distributed to local bodies working with pre-school children. Sufficient funding was retained allowing a start up if interested volunteers come forward.

Schools work continued with the Outreach Worker along with a larger team including the Deacon delivering the Easter Code leading the children through the last week of Jesus' life. This was attended by P6's from Lochgelly West and Lochgelly South schools.

The Kirk Session is aware of the need to find a replacement following the Outreach Worker's retirement. The post is not part of the Mission Plan but funding may be available to employ someone through the Church of Scotland Seeds for Growth project to work in the community and who is trained in working with young people and families under the age of 40

Financial Review

The principal fund is the General Fund. The main source of income for this is still the traditional Free Will offering (FWO) collected through weekly envelopes and a number of standing orders. The budget adopted for 2024 required donations of at least £750 a week to meet anticipated expenditure. At the end of 2024, 28 members were contributing by standing order ensuring weekly income of £280. During the year 45 sets of FWO envelopes (down from 75 in 2023) were issued to members.

47 persons made their donations under gift aid declarations. These declarations allow tax already paid on these payments to be recovered by the Church. The Church also benefitted from the Gift Aid Small Donations Scheme on small donations in the open plate made at both the Lochgelly and Benarty places of worship. The total tax recovered in 2024 was £7,444 (down from £7,684 in 2023). £62 (down from £78) was generated by Easyfundraising, which allows the church to benefit from the on-line shopping of those members of the Congregation who register for this.

The congregation is reliant on other sources of income to meet budget requirements. Rents for hall lets produced £5,468 (an increase from £5,100 in 2023). Fundraising initiatives continue to be critical and produced £3,682 (a reduction from £3,950 in 2023).

Reserves Policy

The draw down from reserves necessary to continue meeting operating costs and remittances to the national church in 2021 focussed attention on the policy of holding reserves. Holding a fund to cover six months' expenditure and the annual maintenance costs associated with four buildings, three of which are listed as of architectural interest, is both prudent and necessary. During the year with approval from Presbytery replacement of the windows in the Manse was completed and required expenditure of a substantial sum (£34,338) held by the General Trustees on behalf of the congregation (see Appendix to the financial papers).

At the year end the Congregation held unrestricted funds in cash and investments of £76,213 of which £16,116 (including an insurance payment of £6,571 to cover damage to the railings at the front of the Lochgelly church building) has been designated as a fabric fund to go towards a number of property improvement and maintenance projects. A further £5,632 remains designated for improvements to the IT infrastructure of both church buildings. £14,073 is held in restricted funds for specific projects and activities and is not available for general operating costs.

Statement of Trustees' Responsibilities

The members of the Kirk Session must prepare financial statements which give sufficient detail to enable an appreciation of the transactions of the Church during the financial year. The members of the Kirk Session are responsible for keeping proper accounting records which, on request, must reflect the financial position of the Church at that time. This must be done to ensure that the financial statements comply with the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended) and the Regulations Anent Congregational Finance approved by the General Assembly of the Church of Scotland in 2007. They are also responsible for safeguarding the assets of the Church and must take reasonable steps for the prevention and/or detection of fraud and other irregularities.

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf on 23 March 2025

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of Lochgelly and Benarty: St Serf's

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 December 2024 which are set out on pages 9 to 14.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 (as amended)

The charity's trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

An examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44 (1)(a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
