Purposes: 'the advancement of education'

What the charity does: Our Girlguiding unit is set up to give girls a safe, fun, and supportive space to grow in confidence, learn new skills, and discover what they can achieve. We do this by running weekly meetings filled with activities, games, badges, and challenges that encourage teamwork, creativity, and leadership. We also take part in community projects, outdoor adventures, and events that help girls build resilience and make lasting friendships. Everything we do is designed to help girls have fun, feel empowered, and find their voice.
