Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: We are a group of armature singers who enjoy singing. We encourage others in the local community to join us: we consider that singing and being a member of such an organisation is helpful for improving and maintaining our physical and mental health. We hold concerts twice during the each year, usually in December and April. We employ a Musical Director and an accompanist, both of whom are professional musicians. In the weeks before the concerts, we rehearse each week.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To promote, improve, develop, maintain education in and appreciation of choral music by its study and practice and by presentation of public choral concerts.

Geography

- Main operating location: Inverclyde
