Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement'

What the charity does: Docomomo Scotland advances the education of the public and stimulates interest in buildings, sites and neighbourhoods of the Modern Movement in Scotland in particular and, more generally, Scotland's built 20th-century historic environment. We do this by encouraging research, documentation and conservation of said buildings, sites and neighbourhoods. We organise seminars, talks and tours. we write articles, contribute to books and publish online media. and we campaign by proposing historic places for heritage designation and/or documentation and by commenting on development proposals affecting historic places. We also contribute to activities of our parent organisation Docomomo International, as its 'Scottish National Group'.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the Association are to advance the education of the public and to stimulate interest in buildings, sites and neighbourhoods of the Modern Movement in Scotland by encouraging research, documentation and conservation of said buildings, sites and neighbourhoods
