Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: The charity is set up to provide activities for young people according to the Policy Organisation and Rules of the Scout Association. This is done by holding weekly meetings for 3 different age groups - beavers, cubs and scouts, where they undertake a wide variety of activities. These will include games, first aid, learning new skills, helping others to learn, outdoor and environmental activities, adventurous activities and generally learning to live together as a diverse group of people. Fundraising activities are organised by adults to support this work, so that no-one need be excluded by lack of funds.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: 'Scouting exists to actively engage and support young people in their personal development, empowering them to make a positive contribution to society'
