Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the promotion of equality and diversity'

What the charity does: East Renfrewshire Carers' Centre provides information, advice and support to carers and young carers. The Centre works in partnership with East Renfrewshire Council and have established the Carers' Centre as the main voluntary sector service specialising solely in supporting carers and young carers. Our dedicated staff team provide a high-quality service providing a range of emotional and practical supports to carers as they face the many challenges and difficulties that often come with caring responsibilities. We provide information and advice, emotional support, income maximisation, information sessions, short breaks, help to have your voice heard and support with Adult Carers Support Plans.

Beneficiaries: 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: The objects for which the Company is established are to advance the education, improve the health and wellbeing and relieve the poverty and distress of carers within East Renfrewshire
