What the charity does: We are part of the larger Girls' Brigade Scotland, where our motto is to Seek, Serve and Follow Christ and aim is to help girls become followers of the Lord Jesus Christ, and through self control, reverence and a sense of responsibility, find true enrichment of life. This is done by establishing relationships with our girls and educating them around four areas of badgework - Service, Education, Spiritual and Physical. Our leaders model Christian values and girls have opportunities to participate in fun activities and learn about the world around us, encouraging them to be caring and compassionate to others.
