Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Carr Gomm is a person-centred organisation that supports people who, for reasons of disability or vulnerability, need some help in their lives. Our goal is to enable people to live safely and to do the things they want to in life. This includes helping with day-to-day living, planning for the future, and in realising dreams. We do this by providing support in people's homes and communities, delivered by trained and committed staff.

Beneficiaries: 'Older People', 'People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: In particular, Carr-Gomm Scotland is established for all or any of the purposes for the benefit of the community which now or hereinafter may be deemed by law to be charitable, in particular: to provide relief and support in the community to people experiencing disability, distress or ill-health. to promote the interests of people in need of such relief and support. and 3. to develop new ways of providing support to people in need of such relief and support.
