Objectives and activities

Charitable purposes

The provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the objective of improving the condition of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended, The advancement of environmental protection or improvement.

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

Our main activity consists of maintenance of the village garden. We met regularly, at least once a month, to carry out any work required. We decorated the garden with Christmas lights adding a festive atmosphere to the garden and had an official lighting-up ceremony with a local village worthy given the honour of switching on the lights.

We continued to maintain the half-mile-long footpath connecting the village to country walks which is also part of the group's remit. This remains popular because so many people have continued taking exercise post Covid. It also enabled young workers at the Cocoa Bean Chocolate Factory to walk to work when the facility was open. The whole purpose of the path is to save people having to walk on the very busy A75 trunk road.

A new bench, made by the Men's Shed in Castle Douglas, was erected along the path by volunteers. Sadly another bench in the garden was vandalised and needed repair.

APPENDIX 1

Achievements and performance

Summary of the main achievements of the charity during the financial period

The garden has undergone substantial renovation over this past year with a substantial number of new plants. This was enabled by a kind donation of £200 from whist drives in the village.

The planters beside the War Memorial continues to be stocked with plants throughout the year and was tidied up in preparation for the annual Remembrance service

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention - which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: - to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and - to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or - to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
