Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty'

What the charity does: We bring together welfare rights advisers to share information and training to each other so we are all better equipped to provide welfare rights advice. We discuss problems and barriers for claimants and seek collective solutions. We also invite in speakers from statutory agencies.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: To promote any charitable purposes for the benefit of individuals or organisations providing advice, assistance or representation on welfare rights issues within Scotland by the advancement of education relating to welfare rights issues and the relief of poverty and distress.

Geography

- Main operating location: Glasgow City
