Recruitment and appointment of trustees

All of association's trustees are appointed by the members at our Annual general meeting, which is held each year.

Governing document

Our organisation complies with the charities and Trustee investment (Scotland) Act 2005, and the charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 as required by the office of the Scottish charity Regulator (OSCR). The purposes and administration arrangement of the association are set out in our constitution Since 2006,

Charitable purposes

Scotland

Scottish Charity No. SC033717

Great Britain

The principal activities of the organisation are the provision of care and support services to the members of our communities.

However, according to our constitution, our purposes are to provide services for Christians through teaching, Bible school according to the holy Bible; provide advice, information and keep regarding education, immigrations matter, religion issues, health, environment, social welfare, employment to the members of our communities who are almost asylum seekers, refugees and immigrants who belongs to minority ethnic. Moreover, we promote our values and raise funds for organising cultural events, to relieve our members and beneficiaries from depression, to take them out isolation and to encourage them to integrate in the host society.

Activities and achievements

The organisation and its committee members have performed the routine activities by providing teaching, information, advice to the members in this year ending March 2024. Therefore seminars, conferences, Christmas party have been organised and we have been visited by some guests coming from England, and Europe, and Africa. Eventually, one wedding have been celebrated to the church, attention made on youth activities, women, men, and kids to enhance them, empowering them and finally some people were baptised.

The committee members focused on delivering of word of God to assure the Christian Education, principal activities of the organisation, accessing members' commitments and developing youth and women activities. The management committee schedule endeavours to achieve balance between organisation duties and members commitments.

To significantly develop our activities, we will continue to apply for fund for training and development.

Decisions

Decisions have been taken as following:

- All activities should as the last year be planned and taken in the best interest of the organisation and the members whom the association seeks to serve.
- Develop the fellowship between members and organise more seminars, conferences regarding the importance of members' commitments in overall sectors of the life of members in the organisation development, household, and family's issues, etc.
- Thinking about buying our Own place.

Trustee remuneration and expenses

The trustees are working on voluntary basis. The rent represents at least 34 % of our expenses and sustained gift for guest's preachers with 52% of our expenses for education trainings. Therefore, the remaining financial resources are very limited to extend our activities.

Reserves

From the financial annual report, a surplus of £913.77 has been arising for this financial year. These funds are unrestricted.

On our Annual general meeting, it was decided to enhance the mortgage committee as in the last year and searching funds to perform our activities successfully and consistently.

Our trustee's team reviewed and scrutinized the organisation's accounts.

Approved by Trustees and signed on their behalf.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.
Independent examiner's statement	In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention <ol style="list-style-type: none"> which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or <ol style="list-style-type: none"> to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.
