Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: To advance education of the public by promoting and thereby ensuring the future of a theatrical show recognised by the Scout Association as the 'Edinburgh Gang Show'. We produce the Show and offer training in all aspects of theatre craft to members of Scouting and Girlguiding. The annual Shows are staged within the City's principal professional theatre complex with audience levels in the 5000 - 6000 bracket. Generally up to 230 young persons (aged 8 - 18) are involved in our productions.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: The principle object of the company is to advance education of the public by seeking to promote and thereby ensure the future of a theatrical show recognised by the Scout Association as 'Edinburgh Gang Show'.
