What the charity does: At Friends of Newton Park, our mission is to create a healthier, more sustainable environment while fostering a sense of community. We believe that a thriving community is one that takes care of its environment and its people, and we are committed to nurturing both. By supporting the upkeep of local green spaces, providing outdoor activities, and engaging with local schools and volunteers, we're helping to create a more connected, vibrant community where nature and people thrive together. Our charity is dedicated to improving and maintaining the environment in South Ayrshire, creating opportunities for community engagement, and ensuring the well-being of local wildlife. Through our various programs and partnerships, we are making a significant impact on both the environment and the people who live in our community.
