Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (a) to (c) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of Independent Examiners Statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland)

Independent Examiners Statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1 which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:

- to keep accounting records in accordance with section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and
- to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations

have not been met, or

2 to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

The above charity (unit) is an unincorporated association. It has no written constitution, but operates in accordance with the policies and procedures, published by Girlguiding, the operating name of the Guide Association.

Its trustees are the volunteer adult leaders trained and appointed as per the Girlguiding policies and procedures. Update training is available throughout the year.

The charity's aim is to deliver a programme of informal education in accordance with the ethos and principles of Girlguiding. During the above period the charity provided this programme to 24 girls

The charity's main income is a subscription income. The charity aims to hold sufficient cash funds to meet all expenditure due and anticipated during a 2 month period. This year we have been given donations and fundraising which we will use for trips next year.

During the year the trustees did not receive any remuneration.
