Activities

Activities: 'It does none of these'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development'

What the charity does: Glenrothes Trefoil Guild is part of the national Trefoil Guild. It is an organisation for those aged 18+ who have, or have had, an interest in Girlguiding. The Guild holds monthly meetings during the year (with the exception of July and August) and enjoys hearing from speakers, taking part in a variety of activities, enjoying social outings together, and supporting Guiding activities and events, particularly for Girlguiding Fife, where the members encourage the younger generation in whatever they are doing at any particular time.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: Promoting the instruction of girls of all classes in the principles of discipline, loyalty and good citizenship

INDEPENDENT EXAMINATION CERTIFICATE

I have examined the Trustees' Report, the Church Accounting records, and the Receipts & Payments Account and Statement of Balances that are attached as part of this document.
My examination has been carried out under Section 44(1)(c) of the Charities & Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005, and this report is made solely to the charity's trustees.

To the best of my knowledge & belief, and in accordance with the information & explanations given to me :

- a) The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1)(d) of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006 does not apply and therefore the Unit is eligible to have an independent examination.
- b) The Receipts & Payments Account and Statement of Balances have been properly prepared from the records of the Guild and are in agreement with them.
- c) The Receipts & Payments Account & Statement of Balances comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations and with the Guild's Constitution.
- d) * In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect, the requirements of Section 44 (1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulations 4 and 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met.
