Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the advancement of public participation in sport', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'the advancement of environmental protection or improvement', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage', 'any other purpose that may reasonably be regarded as analogous to any of the preceding purposes'

What the charity does: The charity was set up to help regenerate the local communities in which it serves by improving, protecting and managing the environment of the Communities by the reclamation, radiation or restoration or any other operation intended to facilitate the economic, social or environmental use of the communities where such has been restricted because of previous use and to support residents in the Communities in a manner that will increase economical and social independence by developing regeneration projects. This has been achieved by the redevelopment of the Lochgelly Miners Institute with the assistance of grant funding from a derelict building into a functioning economic and social hub within Lochgelly, providing spaces for businesses to operate and the Ore Valley Business Centre has helped improve the economic, social and environment of the local Community.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: (a) to provide housing and other properties and assistance to persons in necessitous circumstances within Fife and/or such other areas of economic disadvantage as the Management Committee of the Company may determine from time to time (the 'Communities'). (b) for the benefit of the Communities, to improve, protect and manage the environment of the Communities by the reclamation, remediation or restoration or any other operation intended to facilitate the economic, social or environmental use of the Communities where such use has been prevented or restricted because of previous use. and (c) to support tenants and residents in the Communities in a manner that will increase their economic and social independence by developing regeneration projects linked to housing improvements.
