Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'any other purpose that may reasonably be regarded as analogous to any of the preceding purposes'

What the charity does: The Polish Family Support Centre, established in 2009, is a dynamic charity with a clear focus on supporting the Polish minority in Scotland. We take pride in offering comprehensive support for disadvantaged individuals, families and young people including counselling, psychotherapy, workshops, and social and advocacy services.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'People with a particular ethnic or racial origin', 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: The objects of the PFSC are to advance the education, relieve the poverty and otherwise promote the welfare of those in the community who are disadvantaged through circumstances, disability or are socially excluded on the grounds of their ethnic and cultural difference
