Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Our charitable purpose is to support individuals in Inverclyde affected by problematic substance use, helping them move forward in their recovery journey. We provide a wide range of services, including: - One-to-one key working and recovery planning - CBT psychosocial group sessions -Trauma counselling and wellbeing activities -Accredited training courses and peer volunteering opportunities -Family support through peer groups and counselling - Community engagement events to reduce stigma We also work in partnership with third sector and public sector organisations to ensure joined-up support for people in recovery.

Beneficiaries: 'People with disabilities or health problems', 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: To relieve the needs of people resident in Inverclyde who have a history of addiction and are now in recovery, and in particular (i) to provide the appropriate knowledge and skills for clients to move on to a stabilised and purposeful life in the community (ii) to enable clients to access opportunities for themselves within their community and (iii) to link up with existing treatment services, thus maximising benefits through a joined up service to clients.
