Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: GEAC aims to deliver a bold creative programme in locations across Glasgow North East. We run weekly workshops and classes in music, performance and visual art from Platform, the arts centre at The Bridge in Easterhouse. These activities are open to all regardless of age and experience and available on a 'pay what you like' basis allowing people to attend free of charge. We also host a vibrant programme of performances, gigs and exhibitions at the arts centre and venues across North East Glasgow. We aim to reduce financial barriers to access as much as possible and offer all 182k residents living in North East Glasgow the opportunity to buy tickets at our 'local links' rate which is currently set at £5. GEAC brings together communities and artists through engagement and participation for reciprocal opportunities to play, learn, be supported, be challenged, and create artworks that reflect their lives and aspirations.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'People with disabilities or health problems', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The company's objects are: (a) to advance the arts and culture, primarily within North East Glasgow. (b) to advance education through (a) promotion of the arts, particularly among residents of North East Glasgow and (b) the promotion of training, particularly among residents of North East Glasgow and with particular relevance to skills associated with employment in the cultural industries. (c) to provide recreational facilities and/or to organise recreational activities, particularly within North East Glasgow, with such facilities/activities being available to members of the public at large with the object of improving their conditions of life. (d) to advance citizenship and community development, primarily within North East Glasgow. and (e) to promote, establish, operate and/or support other similar projects and programmes which further charitable purposes for the benefit of the community within the North East Glasgow.
