Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of the arts, heritage, culture or science'

What the charity does: Bo'ness & Carriden is a Brass Band, registered with the Scottish Brass Band Association, who provide platforms for musicians to perform at concerts, contests and other musical events. We regularly provide music for community events such as local Fair & Gala days. Whilst regularly competing at a high standard, the band also performs concerts for the enjoyment of the local community. We support young brass players within our organisation in developing advanced techniques and musicianship.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The objects of the Association shall be, to promote, maintain, improve and advance education particularly by the promotion of brass instrumental music and encouragement of participation the production of such music.
