Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner	The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) 2005 Act and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.
Basis of independent examiner's statement	My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit and, consequently, I do not express an audit opinion on the accounts.

Trustees:

(Group Lead Volunteer)

The Group continues to provide a varied weekly programme as well as many activity days, visits, sleepovers & camps.

We were overwhelmed to receive numerous Grants to allow us to complete a further phase of our building works within in the Scout Hall.

Our Explorer Unit has really taken off this year after recruiting some new enthusiastic leaders. They are out and about doing both land and water activities with plenty more planned.

During the school holidays in April the Scouts and Explorers had a wonderful week in Jersey, Channel Islands. A jam-packed adventure full of Cultural Visits and Adventurous Activities.

The new Air Heating system seems to be demonstrating a success, with our heating bills being reduced by nearly half. Hopefully this will continue to save money and our way of helping the environment.

Another rise in Scout Association fees is hitting hard. We have kept down our annual fees to help our members whatever way we can to lessen the pressure of financial worries in the current climate. We continue to promote our Rag Bag collections which helps to meet the shortfall for subscription fees.

We are delighted to have been successful in gaining the Scottish Government funding to develop our HQ after many attempts. Planning consent has now been approved and building works are due to commence very soon. This includes a new roof, fascia's, downpipes and the building of an outdoor barn/garage.
