Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended'

What the charity does: Govan Home and Education Link Project exists to support children and families in the Govan (G51) area of the city to overcome challenges and improve their quality of life. As a place based Family Support organisation, we do this through the delivery of a range of practical and therapeutic services designed around the needs of children and families in this local community which include Family Support, Play Therapy, Adult Counselling, Training & Volunteering and The Govan Pantry.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'People with disabilities or health problems', 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: To advance education among children and young people and, in particular, so as to develop their physical, mental and social capacities so that they may grow to full maturity as individuals and members of society. To promote, establish, operate, and/or support other schemes of a charitable nature.
