Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: Our mission plan is to be a visible presence of Christian worship for all in our community and visitors to our island. To provide a welcoming place to locals and visitors and give support to our community whe times of happiness and sadness affect us all. To support our Minister and Kirk Session in the running of the church both practically and with spiritual worship. To show our Christian Faith and love of God by our example. The church is always open and between April to September we invite preachers to stay in the Manse and take a Sunday service.

Beneficiaries: 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'

Objectives: The advancement of religion.
