Purposes: 'the advancement of religion'

What the charity does: Charity is an independent church set up for the advancement of the christian religion, serving all of Kilwinning and the surrounding areas. Up to 4 donations are provided to other religious charities in any given year and the church has a Minister through its partnership with 20schemes. The Church is also affiliated to the FIEC but is not a parent or subsidiary in any of its links. The partnership involves the use of the church by 20schemes in exchange for training and a Minister being provided over a 3 year period which can be extended. The church has a weekly Sunday service, Thursday prayer and bible meeting along with outreach meetings at the Church and at other Kilwinning locations, such as Cranberry Moss Community Centre in Pennyburn. The congregation is small but financially is making a small surplus at present. The overall church balance will reduce, as 3 smaller roof sections require to be replaced during 2025.
