Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: Community House operates a range of services to meet the needs of the local community for children, young people and adults. The activities we provide are after school sessions, holiday sessions, Helping Hands sessions for adults with additional support needs, family outreach support and baby steps, which is support to expectant mothers and to new parents with children up the age of 1. We work in partnership with Social security Scotland offering financial support and work with other third sector organisations to offer the the right support to children, young people and adults. We offer support to access provisions of essential hygiene items for children and families and baby goods as part of our baby steps service. We offer support to families in times of crisis with responsive emergency support, Christmas support and support to access all items families need in times of financial difficulties through all of our services.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'No specific group, or for the benefit of the community'
