Activities

Activities: 'It makes grants, donations or gifts to organisations', 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the prevention or relief of poverty', 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of religion', 'the provision of recreational facilities, or the organisation of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended', 'the promotion of religious or racial harmony', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: The Dhammapadipa Temple operates to support Thai and local community in Buddhist teaching and service. The UK Home Office authorised us to become an "A" rated Sponsor License Holder to allocate working visas to monks whom were suitable for working at our Edinburgh Temple and servicing our community in Scotland. We have forged positive links with partner agencies such as Police Scotland, Shakti Womens Aid, ELREC and our local MP and MSPs to name but a few. We are an authorised Third Party Reporting centre for crime and intelligence affecting our community. We assist and support our community whom have become victims of crime/destitute due to violent domestic abuse, fraud, racism and other criminality or social issues. We became the Buddhist single point of contact for any Scottish Prison Service inmates that requested Buddhist guidance, as well as the SPOC for Police Scotland in the event of major events impacting on Thai people in Scotland. We run wellbeing projects.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'Older People', 'People with a particular ethnic or racial origin', 'Other defined groups'

Objectives: 4 The organisation's purposes are: 4.1 For provisions of recreational facilities in the interest of welfare, support, assistance and education for anyone living in Scotland, and in particular but not exclusively, Thai people, their families and Buddhists to access and use our organisational facilities as required. 4.2 To advance religion through the provision of facilities for religious worship, observance and education for the beneficiaries. and 4.3 To advance education and Thai cultural knowledge through structured and approved syllabuses. and 4.4 To promote racial harmony, foster cultural and religious tolerance and understanding between the beneficiaries and others and to work towards the elimination of prejudice and discrimination against the beneficiaries, thereby enabling them to participate fully in the social, economic and civic life of the community. and 4.5 To aid the people of Thailand during times of great need or natural disaster when called upon to do so by the Government of Thailand or other charitable organisations with the same aims.

Charity Trustees serving on the date of approval of the Trustees Annual Report :

Structure, Governance and Management

Constitution

The charity is constituted as a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation with the charity number SC036183 and is governed by its constitution

Trustee Appointment

The Trustees are elected by the membership at the AGM. In addition, the Board may at any time appoint any member to be a Trustee. In selecting new board members, the Trustees seek to identify people who regularly attend events and functions organised by the charity and are willing to volunteer to help our broader community work. Potential Trustees are invited to attend meetings as observers and are given more details of the charity's aims and activities and, if all agree, they are then proposed as new Trustees at the subsequent meeting. This process allows due consideration of the person's eligibility, competence, specialist knowledge and skills.

Objectives and Activities

The purposes of the charity are:

- Provision of recreational facilities in the interest of welfare, support, assistance and education for anyone living in Scotland, and in particular but not exclusively, Thai people, their families and Buddhists to access and use our organisational facilities as required.
- To advance religion through the provision of facilities for religious worship, observance and education for the beneficiaries; and
- To advance education and Thai cultural knowledge through structured and approved syllabuses; and
- To promote racial harmony, foster cultural and religious tolerance and understanding between the beneficiaries and others and to work towards the elimination of prejudice and discrimination against the beneficiaries, thereby enabling them to participate fully in the social, economic and civic life of the community; and
- To aid the people of Thailand during times of great need or natural disaster when called upon to do so by the Government or other charitable organisations with the same aims

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The Dhammapadipa Temple has continued to build on its success and growing popularity, remaining firmly committed to providing high-quality Thai Buddhist support, wellbeing services, and spiritual guidance to all who engage with us. We are proud to serve a diverse and inclusive community, ensuring that our temple remains a welcoming and supportive space for all.

This year marked a significant milestone for the Temple as we celebrated our 20th Anniversary. We were honoured to welcome His Excellency the Ambassador of Thailand to the United Kingdom and his wife, alongside the Lord Provost of Edinburgh, Members of Parliament, local councillors, and many members of the community we serve. We were also deeply grateful to receive letters of support from His Majesty King Charles III and the Prime Minister, the Right Honourable Keir Starmer MP, which added great significance to this landmark celebration. Throughout the year, the Temple has remained busy and vibrant. We welcomed visits from community groups, schools, and scouting organisations who came to learn about Buddhism and to participate in guided meditation sessions.

Our Thai and wider Buddhist community continue to visit regularly for prayers, merit-making, and blessings. In addition, our monks have provided outreach support by visiting local businesses and the homes of community members to offer blessings and pastoral care when required. Wellbeing Project Our Wellbeing Project continues to flourish and operates on two strands.

Firstly, we provide not-for-profit, low-cost yoga classes for our local and Thai communities, led by our expert yoga instructor, ██████████. Secondly, our monks deliver guided meditation classes, supported by two lay meditation masters, offering meaningful and enriching practice for participants. Since the project began, we have welcomed 5,024 attendances across yoga and meditation sessions, with many participants returning regularly. This level of engagement has exceeded our expectations, and we extend our sincere thanks to everyone involved in making the project such a success.

Furthermore, we operate courses to our community to learn about the Dhamma teachings and also day-long retreats for guided meditation. These have been hugely popular and we will continue to offer this. Outside Space and Garden Improvements As part of our ongoing commitment to maintaining and improving our facilities, we undertook a significant project to the rear garden area of the Temple. A beautifully designed canopy structure has been installed, providing shelter and enhancing the usability of this long, previously limited space. This has greatly improved the visitor experience and the flexibility of our outdoor facilities. Hall Hire by Outside Groups.

We are pleased that the Temple has attracted interest from several local organisations seeking to hire our facilities. Following appropriate due diligence, we entered into agreements with two organisations that provide valuable support services to the local community, allowing them to use our main hall and garden room spaces. Income generated through both the Wellbeing Project and external hall hire has provided valuable additional donation streams, helping to offset the significant energy costs and cost of living rises experienced during the year. Sponsor Licence and Immigration Costs.

The UK Home Office has continued to increase fees associated with migrant worker visas and sponsor licence management. As a small charity, we are not exempt from these increases, and the cost of sponsoring monks has risen accordingly. We remain committed to managing our finances responsibly to ensure full legal compliance and to maintain the high standard of monastic support our community relies upon. We were particularly pleased that our Head Monk, Phramaha Prasert Prommala, was granted Indefinite Leave to Remain during the year. This provides welcome stability for him, the Temple, and the wider community.

Plans for 2026

Looking ahead, we will continue to uphold the high standards and professionalism that have supported our growth from humble beginnings. Key priorities for the coming year include improving our ground floor office and utility space to meet operational need and managing the planned transition of our two temporary-visa monks, [REDACTED] and [REDACTED], whose visas expire early in the year. We will identify and sponsor suitable replacement monks to ensure continuity of support for our community. This will have a financial impact due to Home Office fees and associated travel costs. We also plan to deliver three major religious and cultural festivals, alongside several smaller temple-based events for our community to enjoy.

Financial Review

Total income for the year was £65,670 representing a solid year for donations. While community donations remains strong, income was lower than in previous years, reflecting the wider cost-of-living and energy crisis affecting households nationally. Total expenditure amounted to 66,710, in line with expectations. Our primary income sources continued to be community donations and associated Gift Aid claims. We were also grateful to receive a generous contribution from the [REDACTED], along with donations through Easy fundraising and JustGiving. Our wellbeing project and hall hire income has also assisted with ensuring we have sufficient income to continue to support and offer service to our community Easy Fundraising and Just Giving online apps for which we are most grateful.

Reserves Policy

The trustee's policy is to keep a minimum of reserves equal to 4 months overhead expenses to cover any period when there is a fall in income. We achieved that this year.

Constitution

The charity is constituted as a Scottish Charitable Incorporated Organisation with the charity number SC036183 and is governed by its constitution

The Trustees are elected by the membership at the AGM. In addition, the Board may at any time appoint any member to be a Trustee. In selecting new board members, the Trustees seek to identify people who regularly attend events and functions organised by the charity and are willing to volunteer to help our broader community work. as new Trustees at the subsequent meeting. This process allows due consideration of the person's eligibility, competence, specialist knowledge and skills.

Objectives and Activities

The purposes of the charity are:

- Provision of recreational facilities in the interest of welfare, support, assistance and education for anyone living in Scotland, and in particular but not exclusively, Thai people, their families and Buddhists to access and use our organisational facilities as required.
- To advance religion through the provision of facilities for religious worship, observance and education for the beneficiaries; and
- To advance education and Thai cultural knowledge through structured and approved syllabuses; and
- To promote racial harmony, foster cultural and religious tolerance and understanding between the beneficiaries and others and to work towards the elimination of prejudice and discrimination against the beneficiaries, thereby enabling them to participate fully in the social, economic and civic life of the community; and
- To aid the people of Thailand during times of great need or natural disaster when called upon to do so by the Government or other charitable organisations with the same aims

Summary of the main activities in relation to these objects

The Dhammapadipa Temple has enjoyed continued success after much groundwork was put in the previous years to renovate the building, improve its online profile, embrace our local community and ensure we give the best Thai Buddhist support, wellbeing and spiritual guidance possible to all who engage with us. Our visitor footfall and community engagement numbers have been significantly stronger over this last period and we are so proud of this and we believe our community is stronger as a result.

We have had a busy year with community groups, schools and scouts coming along to learn about Buddhism and guided meditation. We continue to have regular visits from our Thai and Buddhist community for prayers, giving merit and blessings. Our monks have also been visiting businesses and homes of our Thai community to offer blessings and community support to them when needed.

Well being project

Our Wellbeing Project is two-fold. 1) We offer 'not for profit' low cost yoga classes to our local and Thai community taught by our yoga expert, [REDACTED] to lead the yoga instruction. And 2) In addition to this, our monks lead a guided meditation class, assisted by two meditation masters, to provide meaningful and enriching meditation classes.

Since our wellbeing project beginnings 3,535 people have attended our yoga classes and meditation classes and we have had regular repeat attendances by many. This is beyond our hopes and expectations and we thank all involved for making this work so well.

Hall used by outside groups

We are delighted that our temple has attracted the attention from so many local groups, some of which approached us to secure an agreement in principle that we allow them to use our main hall and garden room space for their organisations. After due diligence was carried out, we now have two organisations who provide support services to the local community.

The Wellbeing Project and Outside Groups Hall Use has given us notable additional donations income that have been essential to offset the rise in energy bills we endured.

Sponsor licence and immigration fees for our Temple

The UK Home Office has continued to increase its fees for applying for working visas for migrant workers and for managing a sponsor license. Unfortunately, small charity organisations like us are included in those fee increases therefore our monks work visa application costs have increased too. We will continue to ensure our finances are managed professionally so we are compliant in law to hold the sponsor license and to ensure we have sufficient funds to maintain a consistent approach to resourcing good quality and hard working candidates of monks who would like to stay at our temple and support our community.

This year, we said farewell to Phramaha Prattran who stayed with us for 2 years. He was hugely popular with our community in his relaxed, humble and hard working attitude to his efforts in supporting our temple services. We give thanks to his time and contributions to our community and we wish him all the best for the future.

This year, we welcomed Phra Warakorn and welcomed back Phramaha Akkaporn. Both have settled back into Edinburgh and supporting our Thai and local community. We give thanks to them for agreeing to move to Edinburgh and for working so hard for our temple and our community. Phramaha Prasert, our head monk, continues his stay under Tier 2 visa. His enthusiasm to driving our temple and the support for the community forward is exceptional. We are so lucky to have such an inspirational leader and we give thanks to his continued service.

2025 Plans

We will ensure our standards and professionalism continues as we have grown so well and come so far since our humble beginnings. We have plans afoot to build a temporary structure canopy to the rear of the building which will offer shelter for storage, but also for comfort to our visitors who walk to the rear of the building. We will also renovate the storage / utility area on the ground floor to ensure it is fit for purpose for our busy temple.

We will also provide three substantial religious and cultural festivals for our community to enjoy, as well as several smaller events based in our temple. It will be the temples 20th anniversary in August 2025 and we plan to celebrate with this with a special event that month.

Financial Review

We had an income of £64,493 which was in-keeping with a good year for donations. Our expenditure was £59,311 which was anticipated. Home Office fees and monks travel costs were higher than usual due to sponsoring two new monks and one returning to Thailand within the last year. The last two years visa costs will therefore level out over the coming year. Our main source of income was from community donations alongside related Gift Aid claims. We also received a generous sum from the Royal Thai Embassy in London as well as donations via Easy Fundraising and Just Giving online apps for which we are most grateful.

Reserves Policy

The trustee's policy is to keep a minimum of reserves equal to 4 months overhead expenses to cover any period when there is a fall in income. We achieved that this year.
