Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the advancement of citizenship or community development', 'the promotion of equality and diversity', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: The Junction aims to support and improve young people's health and wellbeing in the heart of Leith Edinburgh. We offer a wide range of health-related services, education and information within a friendly non-judgemental space. Our work promotes long term prevention and aims to increase the capacity of the young people to look after themselves. Our services include: • Therapeutic one-to-one support sessions with youth workers, qualified counsellors, or counsellors in training • Specialist one-to-one support for young people impacted by substance use • Drop-in sessions where young people can receive support at specific times during the week, without the need for an appointment • Educational group work on a wide range of health & wellbeing needs using multiple methods, including creative activities • Outreach Services: We reach out to those most in need of the service and provide education via street work, working with schools, and youth organisations.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people'

Objectives: To provide a centre which supports access to a wide range of health related services, education, information and advice by providing a safe and welcoming environment for young people in North East Edinburgh. The centre will offer activities which provide for the advancement of education relating to the health and social welfare of local young people.
