Report to Board Members and Trustees

Recruitment and appointment of Trustees

All of the board members are appointed or reappointed by the trustees at our annual general meeting, which is held in July each year.

Governing document

The Nurture Educational & Multicultural Society is a charitable unincorporated and the purposes and administration arrangements are set out in our constitution.

Charitable purposes

Our purposes, as recorded in our constitution, are:

- a) The provision of recreational facilities, or the organization of recreational activities, with the object of improving the conditions of life for the persons for whom the facilities or activities are primarily intended, the promotion of religious and racial harmony.
- b) Beneficiaries: Children/ young people, older people, people with disabilities, or health problems. People of a particular ethnic or racial origin. No specific group or for the benefit of the community, other charities/ voluntary bodies.
- c) We have become a member of the “Voices in Britain” charity group operating in the UK. In this context, we have decided to work together with associations in the UK that work for social harmony, peace, and British values without discrimination based on religion or ethnicity.

Charitable Objectives

(a) To promote the physical, intellectual, social, moral, and spiritual development of all members of the Turkish and all Community and in particular of young people, through the provision of a broad range of educational, recreational, and welfare opportunities; and

(b) To promote good relations in the interest of racial harmony and mutual respect between the Turkish community and all other communities and thus enabling the Turkish and all community to participate in and contribute fully to all aspects of civic life.

(c) Mentoring activity,

We conduct mentoring activities with guides to support our growing youth population and facilitate language and cultural adaptation.

We provide weekly values education and book reading activities for our students attending middle school and university.

To introduce and showcase the history and natural beauty of Iceland, we organize five-day reading camps three times a year during Christmas, Easter, and summer holidays.

The Impact of Covid - 19 and mental healthy

All the activities carried out after Covid to continue more efficiently and actively, to make a positive contribution to mental and mental health, and to contribute to socialization and integration, were carried out in our own building and in social areas.

Activities and Achievements

1. Christmas Dinner was very successful, this open to all to attend.

We organize a more productive and pluralistic Christmas dinner with new participants every year.

2. Ramazan Interfaith Dinner to very successful for all community.

We value the month of Ramadan as a way for people with different religious beliefs to come together and understand each other, and each activity becomes more exciting and multicultural than the other.

We made in Glasgow University Interfaith Ramadan Dinner in March 2025

3. The Nurture Educational & Multicultural Society prepared a program to help with the integration of refugee's and their children, weekend school and mentoring activity was provided for all refugee's and their children.

4. We made Cambuslang Chess Club, was very successfully, and we changed addresses

5. We made Cambuslang Music Club, and it continues with new members very successfully.

Independent on Examiner

Approved by the Trustees and signed on their behalf

Chairperson,

Date: 20-12-2025

Independent Examiner's Report to the Trustees of The Nurture Educational & Multicultural Society

I report on the accounts of the charity for the year ended 31 March 2025 which are set out on pages 6 to 11.

Respective responsibilities of trustees and examiner

The charity's trustees are responsible for the preparation of the accounts in accordance with the terms of the Charities and Trustee Investment (Scotland) Act 2005 and the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. The charity trustees consider that the audit requirement of Regulation 10(1) (d) of the Accounts Regulations does not apply. It is my responsibility to examine the accounts as required under section 44(1) (c) of the Act and to state whether particular matters have come to my attention.

Basis of independent examiner's statement

My examination is carried out in accordance with Regulation 11 of the Charities Accounts (Scotland) Regulations 2006. An examination includes a review of the accounting records kept by the charity and a comparison of the accounts presented with those records. It also includes consideration of any unusual items or disclosures in the accounts, and seeks explanations from the trustees concerning any such matters. The procedures undertaken do not provide all the evidence that would be required in an audit, and consequently I do not express an audit opinion on the view given by the accounts.

Independent examiner's statement

In the course of my examination, no matter has come to my attention

1. Which gives me reasonable cause to believe that in any material respect the requirements:
to keep accounting records in accordance with Section 44(1) (a) of the 2005 Act and Regulation 4 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations, and to prepare accounts which accord with the accounting records and comply with Regulation 9 of the 2006 Accounts Regulations have not been met, or
2. to which, in my opinion, attention should be drawn in order to enable a proper understanding of the accounts to be reached.

NURTURE EDUCATIONAL & MULTICULTURAL SOCIETY

1. ACCOUNTING POLICIES

1.1 Basis of preparation of financial statements

The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention, with the exception of investments which are included at market value, and in accordance with the Financial Reporting Standard for Smaller Entities (effective April 2008). The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the Statement of Recommended Practice (SORP), 'Accounting and Reporting by Charities' published in March 2005 and applicable accounting standards.

1.2 Fund accounting

General funds are unrestricted funds which are available for use at the discretion of the Trustees in furtherance of the general objectives of the charity and which have not been designated for other purposes.

Restricted funds are funds which are to be used in accordance with specific restrictions imposed by donors or which have been raised by the charity for particular purposes. The costs of raising and administering such funds are charged against the specific fund. The aim and use of each restricted fund is set out in the notes to the financial statements.

Investment income, gains and losses are allocated to the appropriate fund.

1.3 Incoming resources

All incoming resources are included in the Statement of financial activities when the charity has entitlement to the funds, certainty of receipt and the amount can be measured with sufficient reliability.

Donated services or facilities, which comprise donated services, are included in income at a valuation which is an estimate of the financial cost borne by the donor where such a cost is quantifiable and measurable. No income is recognised where there is no financial cost borne by a third party.

Income tax recoverable in relation to donations received under Gift Aid or deeds of covenant is recognised at the time of the donation.

Income tax recoverable in relation to investment income is recognised at the time the investment income is receivable.

1.4 Resources expended

Expenditure is accounted for on an accruals basis and has been included under expense categories that aggregate all costs for allocation to activities. Where costs cannot be directly attributed to particular activities they have been allocated on a basis consistent with the use of the resources.

Governance costs are those incurred in connection with administration of the charity and compliance with constitutional and statutory requirements.

Grants payable are charged in the year when the offer is made except in those cases where the offer is conditional, such grants being recognised as expenditure when the conditions attaching are fulfilled. Grants offered subject to conditions which have not been met at the year end are noted as a commitment, but not accrued as expenditure.
