Structure, governance and management

Type of governing document

Our governing document is our Charity Constitution. It is the written statement that sets out our purpose, structure and describes how our charity operates. The trustees make sure that the charity complies with its governing document.

Trustee recruitment and appointment

Trustees volunteer for recruitment and appointment into the various roles at the beginning of every new school year. During the AGM (first meeting) people get elected to the offices (chair and vice, secretary and vice, treasurer and vice.)
Any changes to roles or any new members to the Parent Council want to join, and EGM can be called up – with at least 14 days' notice.
