Activities

Activities: 'It carries out activities or services itself'

Purposes: 'the advancement of education', 'the advancement of health', 'the relief of those in need by reason of age, ill-health, disability, financial hardship or other disadvantage'

What the charity does: We create, research and develop attachment based parenting programmes which reflect universal principles in local contexts. We train practitioners to deliver these programmes to families in their communities and support them through this process. This provides families with the opportunity to make positive changes to their lives and build better relationships, benefitting future generations. We gather evidence of our work in order to ensure that our programmes are improving lives. We use our experience and expertise to influence and participate in local and national policy making.

Beneficiaries: 'Children or young people', 'People with disabilities or health problems'

Objectives: The advancement of the mental health and development of children. Education, training and research to enhance the capabilities, skills and understanding of parent and carers to enable them to support the mental health and development of children. Provision of training and support for families where parents or carers or children have or are at risk of experiencing difficulties in parent/carer and child relationships or mental health difficulties
